

Clinton Transit in collaboration with the Clinton County Arts Council Present

Celebrating Clinton Transit 25th Anniversary

“Creating Everyday Connections”

Art Contest

In honor of their 25th Anniversary celebration, Clinton Transit is holding an Art Contest to fill their walls with local artist’s work. Four winners total will be chosen and the chosen pieces will hang in the Administration Facility.

Adult/Professional Entry – “Creating Everyday Connection”

Show the community what this phrase means to you through your art. Artists must be a CCAC Artist or reside in Clinton, Eaton, or Ingham Counties.

Rules:

1. Artwork must be hangable.
2. Minimum size requirement “8 x 10”
3. Maximum size requirement 48” x 48”
4. Any medium can be used if the finished piece can be hung.
5. Artists may only enter one piece.
6. Finished artwork can contain multiple pieces but will be considered ONE complete entry.

Deadlines:

Contestants have from now until September 11, 2026 to complete a piece of artwork and turn it into the Art & Soul Gallery located at 215 N. Clinton Avenue, St. Johns, MI 48879

Exhibition:

All entries will be made viewable to the public September 12 - September 19, 2026 both through an in-person exhibition where people can ballot vote for each category and online through a Google Form. People can vote for one winner in each category and may only turn in ONE ballot. Location of the exhibition is yet to be determined.

Voting will be available on Clinton Transit Facebook, Clinton County Arts Facebook, MyBlueBus.com and clintoncountyarts.org

Winners:

Winning pieces purchased with prize money – to be hung in Clinton Transit Administration Building, plaques with contest and artist name under art on wall. Winners will be announced September 26, 2026 at the Clinton Transit 25th Anniversary Celebration Event.
